

Elle Fowler
MA Urban Design

Career Summary

Elle is an Urban Designer with nine years of masterplanning experience in the UK. She has a multi-disciplinary approach to urban design, and creating high quality urban environments.

Her focus is on city regeneration, sustainability, housing design and public realm strategies. She has developed in response to the demands and changes in the development industry. As a consequence, she has gained a wealth of knowledge, experience and a strong leadership role in urban design, masterplanning, and project management.

Elle works with the client and consultants to produce collaborative, creative and deliverable urban visions. Key clients have been Regeneration Agencies and Councils aiming to guide development by producing Design Briefs, Design Codes and Strategic Frameworks.

Previously, she was an Associate Urban Designer and Practice Leader at Woods Bagot 2007 - 2008 and a Senior Urban Designer and Masterplanner at EDAW 2005 -2007.
